United Kingdom

National forum	No national SEPA forum, however Payments Council acts as the national SEPA organisation for the banking and payments industry. Payments Council also communicates and consults on a bilateral basis with interested UK stakeholders including members of the Payments Council User Fora.
Contact link	http://www.paymentscouncil.org.uk/
Migration plan/report	No formal national SEPA Migration Plan since, in the UK, migration is limited to the domestic euro credit transfer scheme operated by Bacs, which has very low volumes and for which an end date has already been agreed by the Bacs Board. The UK does not operate a national/domestic euro direct debit scheme. The card schemes most commonly used by UK cardholders – Visa, MasterCard/Maestro and LINK – adhere to the SEPA Cards Framework.
